

CAPTAIN GEORGE DOM

BIO

Captain George Dom is a former naval officer and aviator with a career that includes key leadership positions in high performance organizations, including four aircraft carrier fighter squadrons and commander of the air wing on the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower and USS John F. Kennedy. He was also an instructor/pilot at the Navy Fighter Weapons School (Topgun) and commanding officer/flight leader of the Blue Angels flight demonstration squadron. Today, Captain Dom is a highly respected business aviation manager, speaker, and leadership consultant to Fortune 500 corporations, private companies and individuals. He is a 2-time TedX speaker.

San Luis Obispo, CA
(805) 704-2607

george@georgedom.com

HighTrustLeader.com

SPEAKING TOPICS

HIGH-TRUST LEADERSHIP AND TEAMWORK

Discover how to drive exceptional team performance through high-trust leadership, drawing lessons from elite military teams and applying them to your professional context in this interactive, results-oriented presentation.

PERSONAL HIGH-PERFORMANCE

Uncover the secrets of personal high performance through practical applications and habits, derived from the experience of the Blue Angels, renowned for their consistent excellence in extreme environments. This engaging framework not only helps attendees adapt to change, accept feedback, overcome setbacks, and manage energy but also enables consistent high-level performance, enriched with thrilling visuals from the Blue Angels in action.

“Trust is the emotional glue that holds teams together.”

- EXCERPT FROM "HIGH TRUST LEADERSHIP"